

Contents

Photo: Bundeswehr

The European naval construction sector is currently experiencing significant demand for new logistic support ships. Page 26

Photo: Italian Navy

The French-Italian FREMM programme is among the most important multi-national naval programmes to date. Page 32

MARITIME POLICY, STRATEGY & FORCES

- 8 The Balance of Power in the Persian Gulf
Bob Nugent
- 13 "Maritime security must be streamlined into all strategic policy areas."
Interview with Admiral Hervé Bléjean, Director General EU Military Staff and Director Military Planning and Conduct Capability
- 18 Russia's Baltic Fleet
Counterbalancing NATO's Regional Build-Up
Dr. Nikolai Novichkov

SHIP DESIGN AND TECHNOLOGIES

- 22 European Patrol Corvette: A True European Programme?
Giulia Tilenni
- 26 European Logistic Support Ship Programmes
Conrad Waters
- 32 FREMM Design: A Success in Modern Naval Development
Luca Peruzzi
- 38 See but Remain Unseen: the Role of Naval Electro-Optics
Doug Richardson
- 44 Primer: Cables for Unmanned, Subsea Applications
Tim Guest
- 48 Counter-UAS Applications for Naval Platforms
Tamir Eshel

MARITIME INDUSTRY

- 52 Assurance – Key to Autonomy
Christian von Oldershausen
- 56 The New Normality for Shipbuilding
MSD Editorial Team
- 59 Reducing Risk in Cargo Shipping
David Fairnie

MARITIME OPERATIONS & DOCTRINE

- 61 Adapting Aircraft Carriers to F-35B Operations – A Progress Report
Peter Donaldson
- 63 AGÉNOR's View: from a Danish Frigate's Bridge in the Strait of Hormuz
Hans Uwe Mergener

COLUMNS

- 1 Editorial
- 3 The Watch Bill
- 4 Periscope
- 40 Masthead

Index of Advertisers

DNV GL	23
Expodefensa	35
IDEF	53
IDEX	4 th cover
IMDEX Asia	15
IMDS	25
Koehler	37
Lürssen	8/9
Marine Alutech	11, 55
Mittler	3 rd cover
NAVDEX	2 nd cover
NCT Virtual	41
Saab	29
UDT	43